

Feature Highlight

Shift Prep

Introducing the “crystal ball” for your restaurant. Shift Prepemail gives you a leg up on tonight’s dinner service, hours before your first guest walks in the door. Your table management and point of sale systems just had a baby.

Be ready for the rush

Will deliver a Shift Prep email timed perfectly for your team’s pre-shift meeting with news of any late-breaking reservations, predicted problems, or specials.

Shift Prep predicts how many guests will visit tonight. It considers reservations, past results, holidays, the weather, and nearly 20 other factors.

Predictions and Insights

Shift Prep learns from each day’s business. Uses the data from each day to get smarter so you can use your restaurant history to predict the future.

Feel the heat, stay in the kitchen

In the critical hours before service begins, Shift Prep shows your team what they need to know before guests arrive like predicted covers, who’s coming in, and VIPs.

It remembers what your regulars with reservations tonight ordered last time. See which menu items will be popular with tonight’s repeat guests, hours before they arrive.
